THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

FROM THE EARLY SETTLEMENTS TO THE PRESENT DAY
BY JAMES M. SMITH

CHAPTER I: THE EARLY SETTLEMENTS

The first European settlers in North America were the Pilgrims, who arrived in 1620 on the Mayflower. They established the Plymouth colony in Massachusetts. Other early settlers included the Jamestown colonists in Virginia (1607) and the Roanoke colony (1585-1586).

1620

The Pilgrims, a group of English Separatists, sought religious freedom and established the Plymouth colony in Massachusetts. They faced harsh conditions and food shortages, but their perseverance led to the signing of the Mayflower Compact in 1620, a document that established a form of self-government.

The Pilgrims' success in establishing a permanent settlement in North America paved the way for other European colonies. The Mayflower Compact is considered a foundational document in the history of American self-government.

The Pilgrims' journey and settlement in Plymouth are a key event in the early history of the United States, marking the beginning of permanent European settlement in North America.

The Pilgrims' settlement in Plymouth was a significant step towards the development of a distinct American identity and the eventual formation of the United States.
