THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

CHAPTER I
THE EARLY PERIOD
1492-1600

The first European settlement in North America was established by Christopher Columbus in 1492. The Spanish explorers discovered the continent and claimed it for Spain. The English followed in 1607, establishing the first permanent English colony at Jamestown, Virginia.

The Pilgrims arrived in 1620 on the Mayflower and established the Plymouth colony. The Puritans followed in 1630, seeking religious freedom. The French and Dutch also established colonies in the region.

The American Revolution began in 1775, leading to the Declaration of Independence in 1776. The war ended in 1781 with the British surrender at Yorktown.

The Constitution was drafted in 1787 and ratified in 1788. It established the federal government and the system of checks and balances.

The Civil War (1861-1865) was fought over the issue of slavery. The Union emerged victorious, preserving the nation and ending slavery. Reconstruction followed, aiming to rebuild the South and integrate African Americans.

The Progressive Era (1890s-1920s) saw significant social and economic reforms. The Industrial Revolution transformed the economy, leading to urbanization and the rise of big business.
